ROUND TWO RULES

The on-site competition consists of two parts: a 3-minute presentation and a table demonstration. The two parts are equally weighted in the evaluation, and three professors will serve as the judges for each project. First is the table demonstration which is a free-format and is arranged during the first coffee break on 5 September 2023 between 10:30-11:00 am EDT. Participants will demonstrate their projects to the event participants while the judges walk around. When a judge visits the participant's table, they should be able to complete their demonstration in no more than 5 minutes as each judge needs to evaluate multiple projects. Participants must be concise when showing their work.

The second evaluation occurs during the presentation session that is scheduled to take place between 11:35am-12:35 pm EDT on 5 September 2023. Participants are notified of their allocated time slot via email by 8 July 2023. Note that the schedule will be strictly followed, and a presentation will be cut off when going overtime. Participants must submit their presentation slides by 27 August 2023 by email to fns23.projects@gmail.com. For the title of the email, please write "[3-minute Slides]" + your project title.

The decision of the judging panel is final.
