CHAPTER REPORT

Talk of Desmond McLernon from Leeds University at IEEE Jordan ComSoc Chapter

By Ala' Khalifeh, IEEE ComSoc Jordan Chapter

The IEEE Jordan Communications Society chapter had a vibrant start in 2016. On Thursday 19 May, 2016, the chapter organized a technical talk by Dr. Desmond McLernon from Leeds University titled "Applications of Mobile Robots and Drones in Future Wireless Communication Systems" at the German Jordan University. The talk was originally geared toward academics and professionals.

Technical Lectures (In cooperation with the industry)

DLT Lecturer: Prof. Sumit Roy
Venue: Zain Mobile Communication Provider (Jordan)
